

Sunday 2nd August

August's Green Sunday Goes Outside- The Dalston Mill in partnership with EXYZT and the Barbican Art Gallery exhibition Radical Nature – Art and Architecture for a Changing Planet 1969-2009.

3 – 5pm Workshops and Activities

ecoACTIVE workshop- creating natural forms out of unnatural materials. Suitable for kids of all ages. Sculptures created to stay as part of the Dalston Mill exhibit.

SwapShop – swapping clothes, cds, dvds or books

Homemade Toiletries: Be guided through making your own natural toiletries

Cake Decorating workshop run by 'Party Party' – bring your own cake.

Bike MOT check – give your cycle the once-over and check that it is roadworthy

5pm – 7.30pm : Evening Entertainment

Afro-Brazilian percussion and Capoeira Angola – Kabula performance and workshop

VoICE - a young, female, a cappella trio

Entrance to The Dalston Mill by the Peace Mural on Dalston Lane, between Ashwin Street and Hartwell Street, E8

For further information contact
greensundays@arcolatheatre.com
020 7503 1645 www.arcolatheatre.com/gs

3pm onwards FREE

27 Arcola Street, Dalston E8 2DJ
Visit tfl.gov.uk for walking, cycling and public transport routes to Arcola

Green Sundays at Arcola: entertainment and inspiration for the ecologically curious.

First Sunday of every month.

All are welcome, please drop in at any time throughout the day. FREE.

greensundays

arcola
theatre

Arcola Green Sundays are part of an emerging international network
www.greensundays.org.uk