

green sundays

arcola
theatre

From Durban to Dalston; A Christmas without Waste

Workshops and Swapshops 1pm-4pm

'Upcycle' and 'Transition Town Hackney'

Create your own Christmas gifts and decorations out of old materials and textiles with 'Upcycle' and 'Transition Town Hackney'

'Give or Take'

BRING unwanted items for others and TAKE what you need! Baby equipment, books, toys, small electronic goods, garden tools etc.

COP 17 explained! 2pm to 3pm

Presentation of the latest UN Climate change negotiation in Durban - Background info and outcomes.

'Just Do It' Screening 4pm

'A Tale Of Modern-Day Outlaws' - Documentary on three activist groups: Plane Stupid, Climate Rush and Climate Camp. Entry by donation.

Followed by a Panel discussion

Political conventions or environmental activism? Special guests include Guardian consultant editor Duncan Clark, Director of 'Just Do It' Emily James, Green Party candidate for Islington Caroline Allen...

Acoustic entertainment by members of Green Kite Midnight, the "Climate Camp House Band", and there will be mulled wine and mince pies to enjoy in the café-bar.

1pm to 6pm – Arcola Theatre, Ashwin Street, Dalston

Sunday 11th Dec – Free Entry

Ecovenue

For more information:

<http://www.arcolaenergy.com/contribute/green-sundays/>
www.greensundays.org.uk