

entertainment and inspiration for the ecologically curious

Join us at the Arcola Theatre for a relaxed afternoon exploring how and why to make out planet greener

Sunday 1 August 2010 1pm – 6.30pm FREE

water

This month's events will be held at Dalston Eastern Curve Garden

(entrance opposite the new Dalston Junction stn)

1pm-4pm

Bring your own picnic, have a look around the garden and get involved in our afternoon activities and workshops throughout the afternoon.

Ongoing:

Storytelling: The Story of Fresh Water

What can you find in a Whale's Stomach - hear and draw the stories.

(for children aged 3+)

Guessing Game: How many litres of water goes into making a litre of orange juice... or a pair of jeans? (a game for all ages)

Short films on a loop in the garden's classroom:

Animation: The Story of Bottled Water;

Groundwater, the Hidden Source of Life;

Ted Talk: Jeremy Jackson: How we wrecked the ocean

2.30pm - 4pm

Rainwater Harvesting Workshop with Something and Sons and Limina @

FARM:Shop on Dalston Lane. (Meet at the Eastern Curve Garden)

5pm

UK Premiere of award winning documentary

A Sea Change 85 mins, Dir. Barbara Ettinger, 2009. Imagine a world without fish...

All are welcome, please drop in at any time throughout the day

Find out more: www.greensundays.org.uk

greensundays@arcolatheatre.com

020 7503 1645

Arcola Theatre, 27 Arcola St, E8 2DJ

Visit tfl.gov.uk for walking, cycling and public transport routes to Arcola.

arcola
theatre

arcola
greener sundays