Join us for a relaxed afternoon exploring how and why to make our planet greener cycle sunday

Arcola Green Sundays is joining with Artsadmin for a great day to kick off Artsadmin's Two Degrees festival.

Events will be held at and between:

Arcola Theatre - Ashwin Street, Artsadmin - Toynbee Studios, and Dalston Eastern Curve Garden - Dalston Lane

Routes between Toynbee Studios and Arcola Theatre will host a range of artist-led bicycle events, including a mass bingo bike ride, a graffiti tour of East London, a game of Capture the Flag and a bicycle treasure hunt.

Events will leave from both venues throughout the day – arrive early to sign up, have a bite to eat in the cafes, and take part in drop-in workshops including training sessions for cyclists, bike repair and customising your bike. With craft workshops suitable for all ages, discussions on cycling in Hackney and a community Tour de Dalston there is something for everyone to get involved with.

The day will culminate in a Rollapaluzza Party in the Dalston Eastern Curve Garden with food provided by Peoples Kitchen

(For a full listing of activities, timing and locations see overleaf - also please check websites for links)
